

Academics

Your Mission

- Develop and cultivate academic network and cooperation with universities
- Represent the University of St. Gallen in cooperation negotiations with the world-leading universities
- Acquisition and relationship management with international students (Challengers)
- Develop the concept of integrating the next generation for the Impulse Summit 2020
- Define and realize formats at Impulse Summit to enable Challengers to contribute
- Organizing the Challenger Days (pre-event reserved for Challengers, contributors, partners)

Your Skills

- Excellent communication skills in multiple languages
- Great interpersonal skills and knowledge
- Creativity, reliability, and courtesy
- Bring new ideas and perspectives to the table
- Challenge the status quo
- Ability to develop a largescale conceptual framework
- Interest in the sports industry
- Long-term commitment

Your Benefits

- Get in touch with high-level international students from all over the world
- Improve your personal communication skills with leaders from the academic world
- Establish an academic network with leading universities
- Shape the interactive format of the intergenerational exchange which is our USP
- Have a long-lasting impact on a young student initiative
- Take a step towards a career in the sports business world

We look forward to receiving your application until the 29th of November at 8pm.